Winemaker, Steve Flood, has been making wines since 2011. From his unique Crimson Smoke to the creative Rockin' & Rollin Rita's (margarita-style wines), he is always experimenting and coming up with great flavor profiles. With the goal of bringing unique, creative, and delicious wines to the table, Steve wants to show that wine drinking doesn't have to be so serious! Hungry Run's wines are produced from the best juice and fruit grown locally and around the world.

LOCATION EXPERIENCE

Visitors can stop by Hungry Run Wine Cellars' Gettysburg tasting room for complimentary samples and to purchase Hungry Run wines by the glass or bottle. The Gettysburg tasting room is located inside The Hoof, Fin & Fowl seafood restaurant on Baltimore Street. Hungry Run Wines pair excellently with the delicious menu creations at The Hoof, Fin & Fowl, and in addition to Hungry Run wines, PA beer, spirits and specialty cocktails are also served.

FLAVORFUL FACT

The name Hungry Run Wine Cellars comes from the Hungry Run stream that runs through the beautiful farmlands of the home winery in Lewistown, PA.
